United States Court of Appeals
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 13-1265September Term, 2013

Petitioners' Reply Briefs
(not to exceed a combined total of 7,000 words)

February 20, 2014

Joint Reply Brief of any Intervenors for Petitioners
(not to exceed 4,375 words)

February 20, 2014

The Clerk is directed to calendar this case for argument on the first appropriate date following the completion of briefing. The parties will be notified by separate order of the oral argument date and the composition of the merits panel.

The court reminds the parties that

In cases involving direct review in this court of administrative actions, the brief of the appellant or petitioner must set forth the basis for the claim of standing. . . . When the appellant's or petitioner's standing is not apparent from the administrative record, the brief must include arguments and evidence establishing the claim of standing.

See D.C. Cir. Rule 28(a)(7).

Parties are strongly encouraged to hand deliver the paper copies of their briefs to the Clerk's office on the date due. Filing by mail may delay the processing of the brief. Additionally, counsel are reminded that if filing by mail, they must use a class of mail that is at least as expeditious as first-class mail. See Fed. R. App. P. 25(a). All briefs and appendices must contain the date that the case is scheduled for oral argument at the top of the cover. See D.C. Cir. Rule 28(a)(8).
