Renewable Fuels Association, et al.,

Petitioners

v.

Environmental Protection Agency,

Respondent

Alon Refining Krotz Springs, Inc., et al.,
Intervenors

ORDER

Upon consideration of the motions for leave to intervene filed by: Lion Oil Company, Wyoming Refining Company, Sinclair Wyoming Refining Company, Sinclair Casper Refining Company, Alon Refining Krotz Springs, Inc., American Refining Group, Inc., Ergon-West Virginia, Inc., Hunt Refining Company, Ergon Refining, Inc., Alon USA, LP, Calumet Montana Refining, LLC, Calumet Shreveport Refining, LLC, Delek Refining, Ltd., Par Hawaii Refining, LLC, U.S. Oil & Refining Company, American Fuel & Petrochemical Manufacturers, HollyFrontier Refining & Marketing LLC, HollyFrontier Cheyenne Refining LLC, and HollyFrontier Woods Cross Refining, LLC., it is ORDERED that the motions be granted.

Circuit Rules 28(d) and 32(e)(2) govern the filing of briefs by intervenors. A schedule for the filing of briefs will be established by future order. That order will automatically provide briefing only for intervenors on the side of respondent. Any intervenor(s) intending to participate in support of petitioners must so notify the court, in writing, within 14 days of the date of this order. Such notification must include a statement of the issues to be raised by the intervenor(s). This notification will allow tailoring of the briefing schedule to provide time for a brief as intervenor on the side of petitioners. Failure to submit notification could result in an intervenor being denied leave to file a brief.

Intervenors supporting the same party are reminded that they must file a joint brief or certify to the court why a separate brief is necessary. Intervenors' attention is
