IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

LIVING RIVERS et al., Plaintiffs, v. KENT HOFFMAN et al., Defendants.	RULE 41(a)(1)(A)(i) NOTICE OF VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL Case No. 4:19-cv-00074-DN-PK Judge David Nuffer Magistrate Judge Paul Kohler
--	--

Plaintiffs Living Rivers, Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance, and Center for Biological Diversity (collectively, Living Rivers), pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 41(a)(1)(A)(i), provide this Court notice of Living Rivers' voluntary dismissal of its complaint in the above-captioned matter. To date, the Federal defendants have not filed an answer, motion for summary judgment, or similar pleading in this matter.¹

On November 11, 2019, this Court granted Living Rivers' unopposed motion to stay all deadlines in the above-captioned matter.² This Court stayed the filing deadlines due to the similarities between the present litigation and a separate matter before the Court, titled Friends of Cedar Mesa v. U.S. Dept. of the Interior et al (Case no. 4:19-cv-00013-DN-PK) (consolidated).³ In so doing, the Court stated: "The parties shall file either a status report or a proposed scheduling order within 21 days of the issuance of a decision on the pending Motion to Dismiss in [Friends of Cedar Mesa]."⁴

On March 2, 2020, this Court issued its decision in Friends of Cedar Mesa,⁵ granted the Federal defendants' motion to dismiss, and dismissed the plaintiffs' complaints without prejudice.⁶ Upon review of that decision, and due to the similarities between the present litigation and Friends of Cedar Mesa, Living Rivers anticipates that this Court may likely dismiss the present action as moot. Thus, to conserve the Court's and parties' resources, Living Rivers provides notice of its voluntary dismissal of the aforementioned complaint.

² See Order Granting Unopposed Motion to Stay Case, filed Nov. 14, 2019 (ECF No. 16).
