  - (b) understand the benefit entitlements of Mr McVeigh's superannuation product;
  - (c) understand the main features of any relevant sub-plan;
  - (d) to make an informed judgment about, inter alia:
    - (i) the management and financial condition of REST and any relevant sub-plan;

15. At all material times, a prudent superannuation trustee under the duties imposed under s 52(2)(b) and (c) and under the Due Diligence Risk Duties under the SIS Act would have, inter alia:

17. At no material time has REST set in place processes or taken the steps necessary to enable its officers to inform its Board of Directors, or the Board's Investment Committee, about REST's climate change business risks in accordance with the recommendations of the TFCFD.
18. By reason of the matters pleaded at [13] to [17] (separately and cumulatively), REST has breached ss 52(2) (b) and (c) and 52(2)(j) of the SIS Act, its Due Diligence Risk Duties and/or s 1017C of the Corporations Act.
19. Further and in the alternative, Mr McVeigh has a right in equity to be provided by REST with the Climate Change Information and to enforce the performance by REST of the duties equivalent to those set out in ss 52(2)(b) and (c) and 52(2)(j) of the SIS Act and s 1017C of the Corporation Act.
