UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON
EUGENE DIVISION

KELSEY CASCADIA ROSE JULIANA, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 6:15-cv-01517-TC

DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO SECOND MOTION IN LIMINE
SEEKING JUDICIAL NOTICE (ECF
No. 340)

Defendants hereby respond to Plaintiffs' Second Motion in Limine Seeking Judicial Notice of Publically Available Documents, ECF No. 340. In that motion, Plaintiffs seek judicial notice of 609 documents. ECF No. 340-1. For the reasons that follow, and as specifically delineated in the table attached hereto as Exhibit A, Defendants do not object to the Court taking judicial notice of the 294 documents that were created by defendant agencies and are believed by Defendants to be authentic.¹ Defendants take no position as to whether the Court should take judicial notice of the 312 documents that either were not created by the defendant agencies or could not be authenticated by Defendants. Defendants object to the Court taking judicial notice of the remaining 3 documents for the reasons outlined below and in Exhibit A. Importantly, Defendants' decision not to object or to take no position on 606 documents is based on Defendants' evaluation of the authenticity of each document and is not a concession of the truthfulness or accuracy of the document's contents.

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 allows the Court to "judicially notice a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute" because it is either "generally known within the trial court's territorial jurisdiction" or "can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned." Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). "Judicial notice may be taken of documents available on government websites." Jarvis v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., No. CV 10-4184-GHK, 2010 WL 2927276, at *1 (C.D. Cal. July 23, 2010) (citing Laborers' Pension Fund v. Blackmore Sewer Constr., Inc., 298 F.3d 600, 607 (7th Cir. 2002)). By contrast, "courts are hesitant to take notice of information found on third party websites and routinely deny requests for judicial notice, particularly when the credibility of the site's source information is called into question by another party." Gerritsen v. Warner Bros. Entm't Inc., 112 F. Supp. 3d 1011, 1028 (C.D. Cal. 2015).

¹ Defendants maintain that this case should be dismissed and have moved to terminate it on multiple jurisdictional and substantive grounds. Defendants recognize that this Court disagrees and has entered orders governing trial and pretrial proceedings. See, e.g., Apr. 12, 2018 Minute Order, ECF No. 192 (scheduling expert disclosure deadlines and setting an October 29, 2018 trial date). Defendants' compliance with Court orders, however, cannot and should not be viewed as a concession that these proceedings are proper; nor can or should Defendants' compliance be viewed as a waiver of Defendants' objections to these proceedings.

“While matters of public record are proper subjects of judicial notice, a court may take notice only of the existence and authenticity of an item, not the truth of its contents.” Romero v. Securus Techs., Inc., 216 F. Supp. 3d 1078, 1084 n.1 (S.D. Cal. 2016) (citing Lee v. City of Los Angeles, 250 F.3d 668, 689–90 (9th Cir. 2001)); see also Shaterian v. Wells Fargo Bank, Nat’l Ass’n, No. C-11-920 SC, 2011 WL 2314151, at *1 n.3 (N.D. Cal. June 10, 2011) (“[T]he Court may not take judicial notice of the truth of the facts recited within a judicially noticed document.” (citation omitted)); Gerritsen, 112 F. Supp. 3d at 1029 (noting court can take judicial notice of new articles “only to ‘indicate what was in the public realm at the time, not whether the contents of those articles were in fact true.’” (quoting Von Saher v. Norton Simon Museum of Art at Pasadena, 592 F.3d 954, 960 (9th Cir. 2010))).

In their Second Motion in Limine, Plaintiffs seek judicial notice of 609 documents, many of which are not government documents or were not produced by the agency defendants in this case. They include documents produced by international entities such as the United Nations, see, e.g., ECF No. 340-1, Exs. 284, 297, 376, 416, 435, 464, 472, 573; documents produced by state and local governments, see, e.g., id., Exs. 405, 458, 604; and news articles, videos, and scientific articles produced by non-governmental entities, see, e.g., id., Exs. 319, 326-337, 511, 586. Plaintiffs also seek notice of documents produced by government entities that are not a party to this lawsuit, including prior presidential administrations dating back to George Washington, see, e.g., id., Exs. 399, 400, 543-554; Congress, see, e.g., id. Exs. 117, 252, 264, 421, 608; and other federal agencies, such as the National Aeronautics and Space Administrative (“NASA”) and the Center for Disease Control (“CDC”), which are not defendants in this action. See, e.g., id., Exs. 383, 391, 423. Many of the links to these documents are from third-party, non-governmental websites making it difficult to identify the original source of the document; others have no source listed. See, e.g., id., Exs. 128, 185, 292. The foregoing examples are illustrative, not comprehensive.

To narrow the number of documents in dispute and to avoid supplemental filings after briefing is complete, Defendants have met and conferred with Plaintiffs regarding certain documents for which Defendants identified rectifiable problems, such as broken or incorrect hyperlinks. Where Plaintiffs have provided additional information regarding a document, Defendants have included that information in Exhibit A.

As reflected on Exhibit A, Defendants have reviewed the list of documents for which Plaintiffs seek judicial notice and taken one of three positions on each document: “no objection,” “no position,” or “objection.” These positions are listed in the “Gov’t Response” column of Exhibit A. The meaning of each position is explained as follows.

No objection. Defendants have no objection to the Court taking judicial notice of the existence and authenticity of documents produced by defendant agencies and which the agencies were able to independently locate and authenticate. Defendants would object, however, to the extent Plaintiffs seek judicial notice of the truth of the content of those documents. Defendants also note that their decision not to object extends only to the specific documents provided by Plaintiffs as exhibits to their motion. It does not extend to additional pages of documents that were not provided or to other material hosted on the same website or linked to by the original document. See, e.g., ECF No. 340-1, Ex. 598 (exhibit consists of two pages of information about National Household Travel Survey but does not include entirety of survey results); Ex. 153 (exhibit consists only of first five pages of document).

No position. Defendants take no position on whether the Court should take judicial notice of documents created by government entities that are not parties to this lawsuit, or government documents which Defendants otherwise cannot authenticate due to the age or location of the original document. For these documents, Defendants do not have sufficient information at this time to determine whether such documents are authentic. Defendants also take “no position” as to documents produced by known third party entities, such as newspapers of record, for which Plaintiffs have provided a reliable source. For all documents for which Defendants take no position, it nonetheless remains Plaintiffs’ burden under Federal Rule of Evidence 201 to establish that the existence and authenticity of each document is “generally known” within the District of Oregon or “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b).

Objection. At this time, Defendants object to the Court taking judicial notice of the remainder of the documents. These documents are listed in the “Gov’t Response” column of the attached exhibit as “objection” with a brief explanation of the grounds on which Defendants object. For most of these documents, Defendants object because Plaintiffs have not yet provided an adequate foundation for the Court to take judicial notice. Defendants are willing to meet and confer with Plaintiffs regarding any documents for which Plaintiffs wish to provide additional foundational information before they file their reply brief in support of their Second Motion in Limine to determine whether the parties can narrow the documents in dispute before the close of briefing.

One document for which Defendants object to judicial notice requires further explanation. Defendants object to Exhibit 128 on the ground that the document, a Department of Energy (“DOE”) memorandum, is covered by the attorney-client and deliberative process privileges. DOE has declined comment on the document, citing internal agency and executive branch deliberations about the nation’s power grid. Obvious steps were taken to protect the document from disclosure: the document is clearly marked as a draft and is labeled “Privileged & Confidential, Attorney-Client Privilege” and “NOT FOR FURTHER DISTRIBUTION.” Despite those efforts, the document appeared in the press without DOE authorization. Because the disclosure of the document was unauthorized, DOE has not waived the attorney-client and deliberative process privileges for the memorandum and invokes those privileges now to prevent the document from used in these proceedings. Dukes v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 2013 WL 1282892, at *5 (N.D. Cal. March 26, 2013) (finding “unauthorized and involuntary” disclosures of a privileged document to the New York Times did not waive the privilege when Wal-Mart took “reasonable steps to clearly mark the Memo as privileged” and to “limit its dissemination”); Resolution Trust Corp. v. Dean, 813 F. Supp. 1426, 1429 (finding no waiver of attorney-client privilege when disclosure of document was unauthorized).

In sum, for the reasons stated above and in Exhibit A, Defendants do not object to the Court taking judicial notice of 294 documents; take no position on 312 documents; and object to judicial notice of 3 documents, including Exhibit 128 which is privileged.
